

Journalist's questions for you:

Hello, my name is Julie and I am a journalist today. I have some questions for you. Please, pause the video and answer them now for you, or look at the course on our website. There is a PDF file with these questions. Please, complete it and send it to me OR you can record yourself on a video and read the questions and answer them in your video. And then send it to me! It's a great idea! This is your homework for me, your homework for me. Right?

A - We are starting now with easy personal questions:

1. How are you?
2. What's your name?
3. Where do you live?
4. What do you like doing?(= What are your hobbies?)
5. And what are you doing now?

B - Now some questions about studying:

1. Are you a student?
2. Are you studying now?
3. What are you studying?
4. Do you like English?
5. Can you speak English?
6. How often do you study English?
7. And how do you study English?

8. Do you watch videos in English?
9. Do you do online exercises?
10. Do you read some English texts?
11. And why do you study English?

Fantastic!

C - I would like to know something about your house and your town.

1. Do you like living in your town?
2. And why?
3. What is there in your town for tourists?
4. Are there any good restaurants and coffee shops?
5. And what is there near your town?
6. Is there a castle or interesting nature?
7. And where is your house or flat?
8. Is it near the centre?
9. Can you tell me the way from the train station to your house or flat?
10. How would you describe your home in 5 words (5 adjectives)?
11. Where are you now?
12. And what is there in the room?

Thank you!

D - And can I ask you some questions about this course?

1. Why are you studying this course?
2. Is it a good course?
3. Do you like it?
4. And why?
5. What do you really like about this course?
6. What don't you like about this course?
7. What would you tell to your friends about this course?
8. Would you like to continue with me in another course?

E - And the last part of our interview!

Do you have any questions for me?

Ask me anything in your written homework or in your video homework.

Thank you very much for answering the questions! I am looking forward to reading or hearing them all! And I will see you soon!

Bye-bye!
